Fund Commentary

The Bank of Namibia has reduced the Repo Rate by 25bps to 3.75% in its August meeting, in line with market expectation. The Namibian annual CPI inflation for July came in at 2.1%, for the third month in a row, while South Africa's annual CPI inflation increased from 2.2% in June to 3.1% in July. Despite a recovery in oil prices and persistent Rand weakness, inflation is expected to remain subdued, as the pandemic weighs heavily on consumption and demand-side drivers.

The money market curve has flattened significantly during the month, with 12-month Wibar, Jibar and Treasury-Bill rates pricing down 35-45bps, compared to overnight call rate, which only reduced by 10bps.

The fund remains defensively positioned with a high level of liquidity. Given its duration and maturity profile, we expect a gradual decline in yield, which will remain attractive relative to call rates and inflation going forward.

Collective Investment Schemes in Securities (unit trusts) are generally medium to long term investments. The value of participatory interests (units) may go down as well as up and past performance is not necessarily a guide to the future. Income accruals are made daily and paid out monthly. Purchase and repurchase requests may be received by the manager by 10h00 each business day. Permissible deductions may include management fees, brokerage, NAMFISA levies, auditor's fees, bank charges, trustee fees and RSC levies. A schedule of fees and charges is available on request from Ashburton Unit Trust Management Company. Commission and incentives may be paid and if so, would be included in the overall costs.
